"Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."

The Class of '62 selected the foregoing words as their motto, believing that they express their collective viewpoint on the best way to face the complexities and uncertainties of the Space Age.

The Senior Class is unique in many ways. It is one of the largest classes in the history of the school, having an enrollment of fifty-three members. Surprisingly, the boys outnumber the girls by an enrollment of twenty-nine boys to twenty-four girls. The members of the class will also be the first seniors to receive different types of diplomas---academic, general, and vocational.

It is our hope that the members of the Class of '62 will continue to be unique in worthwhile attainments in life.

Foreword

We, the Annual Staff of Glenwood High School, present with pleasure, the 1962 edition of THE NUSHKA. We would like to express our sincere appreciation to all those who have given so freely of their time and efforts in making this book a reality. We give to you, our staff, our classes, our organizations and our numerous activities that have been the body of our educational program. We have tried to recapture, through the magic of the camera's eye, those glorious moments of our sports program and other outstanding events that have added so much to our lives.

Our Search For

In our constant search for knowledge we turn first and last to the printed word - the knowledge which has so faithfully been preserved and handed down to us throughout the ages. As we have grown in school, we have learned to read both for pleasure and information. The library gives us an opportunity to grow, to develop and fills a vital place in the school life of every student.

Today it is becoming increasingly important to be conscious of the fact that our future vitally depends on scientific advancement. Even in our everyday life, it is necessary to be informed on scientific developments. Facts change, new ideas develop, and a whole new concept may be born in a relatively short time. Certainly ours is a time when one should realize the importance of the meaning of scientific achievement. The science laboratory fills not only an important place in our school but also in our future. Life is composed of many facets, but scientific progress connects the world of today with the world of tomorrow.

Learning FROM CAPABLE LEADERS . . .

The student body of a school is ever dependent upon a faculty to lead and direct the course of its education. We feel that we are able to turn to the faculty for expert counseling. They have led us in our constant search for knowledge and given us a more stable preparation for tomorrow. They have helped develop our attitudes and have influenced our future. It is our highest resolve never to forget those who have given to us so much of themselves. To the faculty we wish to say a sincere, "Thank you."

Learning BY DOING

IN THE YEARS TO COME MAY THE Wonder

The Nushka Staff presents to the student body a record of the happy days and treasured memories experienced at Glenwood High School. Weeks and months of toil, late hours, and fun have gone into the publication of the 1962 Nushka. We hope you will forever hold and cherish these memories. We are honored to have been on the annual staff and to have been a part of your annual.

Everyone looks forward to the time of day when he has a few minutes in which to relax and chat with his friends. Lunchtime and the wholesome atmosphere of the cafeteria provide such an opportunity. Here we also enjoy the delicious meals prepared by our congenial cafeteria staff.

Homemaking plays an important part in preparation for the future. It promotes a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of the home. It encourages each individual to make her contribution to family life and to understand the duties and responsibilities involved in family living. Homemaking will strengthen companionship among family members and help individuals recognize and solve their own problems.

We Dedicate . . .

Perhaps every Senior Class holds dear some teacher who made those early years of school happy and memorable ones. The teacher who is so endeared and so well remembered is one who has never made teaching secondary to any other endeavor. Teaching to her truly is a "Calling" from the Master Teacher who set the example of excellency tempered with love.

We shall remember her most for encouraging a standard of excellency from each of us according to our varying abilities. In exacting the best from each of us, she was not a taskmaster; she, herself, was such a living example of excellency that each was not satisfied to do less than the best.

For this vision of the joys and renumerations of trying our best, we are forever grateful to one of our primary teachers, Mrs. Clara Rayburn, who still helps us to envision the kind of person each of us aspires to be. To Mrs. Rayburn, we simply say: "Thanks to thee, Dear Friend, for the lesson thou hast taught" . . .

P. T. A. Officers

BACK ROW, Mr. Jimmy Lawing, Vice President; Miss Emma McGalliard, Treasurer.

The theme of the P. T. A. this year is "Opportunity in Full Measure: The Right of Each Child, The Responsibility of Each Citizen."

The objectives of the P. T. A. are to promote the welfare of children in home, school, church, and community, to raise the standards of home life, to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children, to bring into closer relationship the home and the school, and to develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

Projects undertaken this year include the installation of more lights to brighten the campus, the purchase of a new set of American Encyclopedias for the library, a new powermatic wood lathe, and more equipment for the playground.

Finances for these projects were provided by the profits from the annual Fall Festival, which is the major fund-raising campaign of the year.

A Master Teacher Sleeps . . .

The unexpected death of our beloved and dedicated teacher and annual sponsor, Mrs. Sadie Anderson Marlowe, shocked and saddened the student body and faculty of Glenwood School.

Aside from Mrs. Marlowe's efficiency in classroom teaching, she will be greatly missed for her personal influence upon those of us who were inspired by her worthwhile living and her faith in the ultimate good in us.

In our sadness we console ourselves by believing that she would whisper this prayer to all of us: "Lord, bless the lives that I have touched; and if my life has helped to ease their burdens or kindled hope where there was despair, take from their minds all memory of me, and may they have instead thoughts of Thee."

"Your presence lingers like an afterglow . . ."

"Tis the human touch in this world that counts."

Our Principal . . . Education Salesman

MR. FRANK W. HOWELL

"If the students who need education most, continue in school until graduation, they must be sold on the idea that education is a MUST to succeed in our modern world." These are the words of an ardent salesman who is truly enthusiastic about his merchandise.

Our principal, Frank W. Howell, Supersalesman of Education, has most of Glenwood SOLD on his products. We respect him as well as his merchandise, thus we BUY.

Class Poem

One phase of our lives is almost o'er,
As we've passed through the halls of Glenwood High;
But we know there are many still in store;
Although graduation day draws nigh.

In '59 we began our high school years,
Toward the top we strived to climb,
We finally overcame our shyness and fears,
Though Freshmen, we improved with time.

With all the awkwardness in the past,
We began this year with determination;
Finally being Sophomores at last,
Facing each problem with fascination.

Our Junior year brought much preparation
With our parties and banquets in store,
Still we found time for education,
Realizing we had just one year more.

The years ahead, we anticipate;
Our Senior year brings hope anew,
For we're of courage, the Class of '62
We're ever longing, yet trusting fate.

Memories will linger with us forever
Of our pleasant days at Glenwood High;
But our friendships, we cannot sever
Though to our class mates, we now say--Good-by.

One in Fifty . . .

The Fiftieth Girl and Fiftieth Boy are selected each year by a unanimous vote of the high school faculty. The honors given are based on the philosophy in Dr. Frank Crane's essay, THE FIFTIETH BOY--that "one boy in fifty" will remain after the crowd has gone and help to do the "dirty, unpleasant tasks." This year's Fiftieth Girl and Fiftieth Boy, Joyce Smith and Allen Duncan, have "remained after the crowd was gone" and also have volunteered to do even more.

With everyone returning from last year's squad, the Dragon's baseball team should have a good season this year. More experience and new and better equipment should help the team show great improvement over last year's season.

Returning will be Eddie Laney, a fine defensive ball player and excellent batter; Jim Condrey, a fine catcher and power batter, Cecil Foster and James Condrey who will be the mainstay pitchers; Clinton Reel and Bill Queen, who are good fielders and fine batters, will complete the outfield staff. These boys are backed by a capable bench which will press them all season for starting assignments.

The Glenwood Student Council, organized in 1943, is a chapter of the National Association of Student Councils. The theme of this year's National Council Convention is "Tomorrow's world is already in the Making." Glenwood Council members find these words challenging ones in carrying out their objectives. The main project of the Council is to encourage better school spirit in every possible way.

Members help finance the athletic activities by operating a concession stand at the ballgames.

Safety Patrol

Mr. Harold Mask
Sponsor

The Bus Patrol is very important in maintaining safe and efficient operation of our fourteen buses. The drivers have a tremendous responsibility in transporting students to and from school. The patrol is our way of sharing this responsibility and helping to prevent accidents. The aim is to have the safest buses possible in operation. The bus patrol works hard to insure this safety.

Key Club

The Glenwood Key Club is composed of closely selected boys of good character, leadership potential, high academic standing, and boys who are interested in service to their school and community. The annual drive for toys for underprivileged children is a major project. Monthly luncheon meetings are held.

The Key Club is designed to train young men for future membership in a civic club.

Future Teachers Club

The Glenwood Future Teachers Chapter is a member of both the state and the national organizations and participates widely in school activities. The highlights of the year were the assembly program and tea given for teachers during National Education Week, the Santa Pal project for underprivileged children at Christmas, and the spring clean-up campaign.

The purpose of the club is to instill in promising students the desire to teach and to give them the opportunity to gain practical experience.

The Future Homemakers Club is one of the largest and the most popular clubs in our school. Miss Vivien Clark, club sponsor, enthusiastically urges each member to strive "toward new horizons" in every activity. The goal of the club--to improve personal, family, and community living--is a constant challenge.

One of the highlight activities of the Future Homemakers is the sponsoring of a nursery for members of the P. T. A. who wish to bring young children to the meetings.

The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The F.F.A. is an activity of the Vocational Agriculture Department. This year 66 boys have participated in competitive livestock judging, tool identification, parliamentary procedure, and land judging. The members participate in many services to the community and school.

During the summer each member is busy carrying out his supervised farming program, but some take off a week to attend the F.F.A. camp for a week at White Lake, N. C.

Future Nurses Club

The Future Nurses' Club was organized to instill a love for nursing and to encourage the members to consider nursing as a career. Through various programs and films, the girls have been informed about the many phases of nursing. The club has enjoyed different projects, especially helping underprivileged children at Christmas time and preparing sunshine boxes for invalids. The highlight of the school year was the visit to the local hospital, where the members were given first-hand information in nursing as a career.

The Future Nurses put into practice the things they learn.

Editor's Message

Dear Annual Staff:

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to everyone who has had a part in making the 1962 NUSHKA a reality. Without your work and co-operation this annual would not have been possible.

After the death of Mrs. Marlowe, our sponsor, I often felt that the publication of our annual was merely a dream that couldn't possibly come true; however your encouragement and willingness to work proved to me that dreams DO come true if we want them badly enough.

As our school days end, may this annual hold pleasant memories for each of you. In years to come, as you glance through its pages, may the 1962 NUSHKA bring to your minds our wonderful memories of Glenwood High School. Again, I wish to say, "Thank you!"

Joyce A. Smith,
Editor

Dear Becky:

I have enjoyed being in your room these many years. I hope to be in your room many more years. We have had a lot of fun together. We have also had some bad times. We always seem to get back to the same old routine. You are the nicest girl I have ever known. Sometimes I get a little mad but not often. When I do it doesn't last very long.

Your family I love with all my heart You seem to be a person who really cares what happens to others.

I have always loved you and always will I hope you are my friend and will continue to be my friend. Best wishes to the nicest gal in the world. May God bless and keep you allways. May all success find its way to yours doorstep.

Love always
Malinda
